AirFest 2009 Secures IDT as Corporate Sponsor

Rockford, IL – The Chicago Rockford International Airport (RFD) announced today that it has reached an agreement with Infrastructure Defense Technologies (IDT) of Belvidere, Illinois to be a corporate sponsor of AirFest 2009. This will be the third consecutive year that IDT has joined with RFD to put on AirFest.

About Infrastructure Defense Technologies: Infrastructure Defense Technologies (IDT) is a developer, manufacturer, and marketer of physical security products designed to meet the threats of the 21st Century. Our mission is to design, develop, prototype, test, market, and manufacture low-technology, rapidly deployable, cost effective products or systems designed to protect high value targets. Our clients are responsible for the protection of one or more high consequence assets which require protection against an authenticated threat. IDT maintains its headquarters and manufacturing operations in Belvidere, Illinois and a Government Projects Office in Washington, DC.
