Punta Cana, Dominican Republic:

Sunday - Starting Dec. 22, 2019– March 29, 2020

Thursday - Starting Jan. 23, 2020 – April 2, 2020

More than 100,000 passengers have taken advantage of the services and specials Apple Vacations and RFD have offered over the last 15 years. The collaboration has led to better fares, more destinations and amazing vacations for travelers within a 200-mile radius of the Rockford region. RFD offers fast and hassle-free check in; free wi-fi; free luggage carts; less crowds and many other amenities for passengers.

“We are very excited to continue our partnership with Apple Vacations for the fifteenth consecutive year,” said Mike Dunn, executive director of RFD. “We are proud to be able to offer non-stop flights to affordable, quality destinations and look forward to another busy travel season at RFD.”

Miami Air is an American charter airline based in Miami-Dade County, Florida. It operates worldwide passenger charter flights for diverse groups including cruise operators, professional sports teams and the United States military.

Apple Vacations, America's leading vacation company, has provided affordable, top quality vacation packages from U.S. departure cities to vacation destinations throughout Mexico, the Caribbean, Central America, Hawaii and Cuba, as well as top North and South American ski resorts. Consistently voted “Best Tour Operator” in various categories by readers of the leading travel trade magazines, Apple Vacations has delivered more passengers to Mexico and the Dominican Republic than any other tour operators worldwide.

The Chicago Rockford International Airport (RFD) is Chicago's low-cost airport for cargo and passenger services. RFD is served by two passenger airlines, Allegiant Air and Apple Vacations, and serves ten nonstop destinations. RFD is among the nation's Top 20 airports by cargo volume. The airport is home to the second-largest UPS hub in North America, ABX Air, ATI, Atlas Air and Southern Air, which support daily flights for Amazon.
